- 1 OH MY GOSH!!!
- 2 We're number 11
- 3 Seniors get rowdy!
- 4 Smile!!

*Upon reaching the place where surf meets sand
It curls and crashes with a rumbling roar*

*And stretches out
far upon the land
Striving to leave
its mark on the shore . . .*

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming

Freshmen Princess Shannon Chavez.

Junior Princess Kim Hannon.

1982

Homecoming Queen Trina Vigil and Spirit Queen Nora Alfonso.

Homecoming week, which was based on the theme "With each season, a new beginning," came to an exciting end on Saturday, October 23. During halftime, Senior Princess Trina Vigil was crowned the 1982 Homecoming Queen by last year's winner, Judy Rodriguez. After a week of competition for points between classes, the Seniors enjoyed their victory as Senior Princess Nora Alfonso was crowned Spirit Queen by Shannon Clark, who received the title last year. The princesses from each class were also presented. They were Freshmen

Princess Shannon Chavez, Sophomore Princess Anna Gallegos, and Junior Princess Kim Hannon. They were all escorted by their fathers.

Overall, the halftime show was colorful and lively. Balloons formed a rainbow over the Marching Band, fireworks lit up the sky, and students from each class wore costumes that represented their season. Freshmen were fall, Sophomores - winter, Juniors - spring, and Seniors - summer.

Now what do I do with the seeds? asks Shannon Chavez and Gabe Garcia.

Sandy Hawkins adds a touch of Fall to the Homecoming backdrop.

Homecoming was filled with FUN events. The most conspicuous were the lunchtime activities. Each class took the role of a season. On "decorate the quad day" the quad was littered with surfboards, Christmas tree decorations, and even a football field with a dummy that resembled a dead La Quinta football player. The seniors gave out suckers at the pep assembly, put toilet paper and apples in the teachers boxes, and even decorated the teacher's lounge! But lunchtime wasn't long enough for these spirited Santiago radicals.

"Try this one on for size, Chris!" says Kim

David James and Nora Alfonso "scarf out" on watermelon.

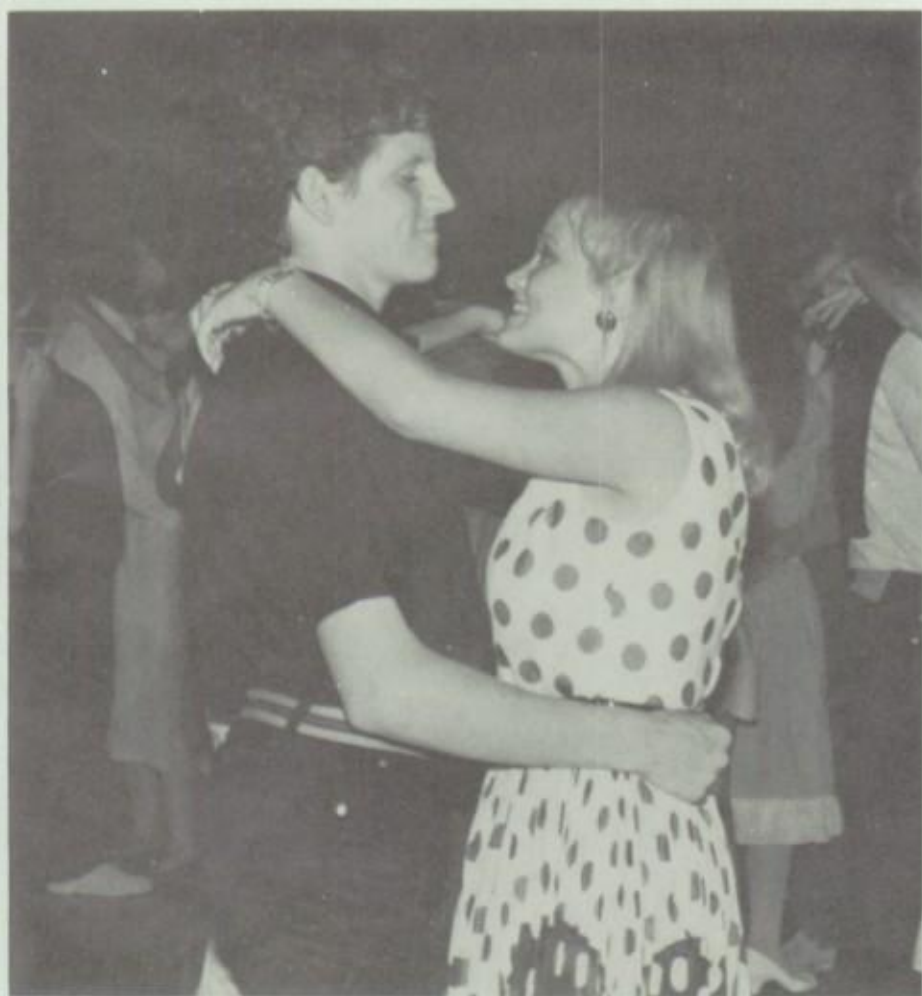

Homecoming Week

Kim Hannon and Chris Campuzano grass ski the quad at lunchtime.

(Santa) Anna Gallegos in sophomore Winter Wonderland.

Only two more watermelons to go, Anna and Louis.

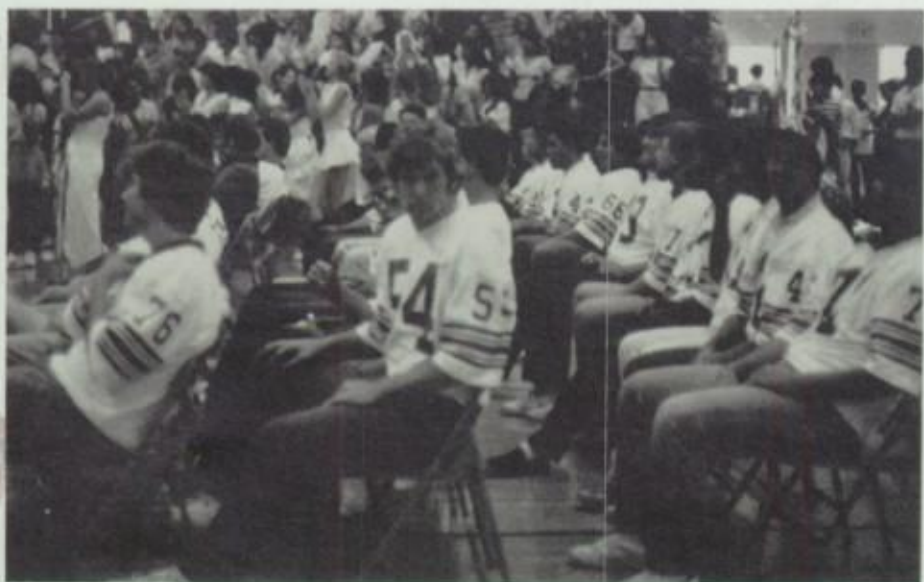

Pep Assemblies

1. Levi's never go out of style.
2. Proud Cavaliers show their true colors.
3. Marching Band performs at pep assembly.
4. We're #1!
5. How much longer do we have to sit here?
6. Pattie Fletcher, Darlene Lima, and Shelly Hathcock mug for camera.
7. Varsity Yell enthusiastically leads cheers.
8. Seniors show underclassmen their super spirit.

We've Got Spirit!

SOCK HOP

- 1 Doing the swing sure knocks you off your socks!
- 2 "Working with these shoes all night, all I need is some SOLE music." says Tricia Dudney.
- 3 Put your left foot in, put your left foot out ...
- 4 Doo Wah, Doo Wah.
- 5 Vince Mendez puts a dime in the jukebox.(?)
- 6 Bellhops at your service: Lori Robertson, Lori Banuelos, Yolanda Davis and Charlene Lewis.
- 7 I'm Ricky Ramirez, not Colonel Sanders!
- 8 Jerry and Marla slow dance.

SADIE HAWKINS

- 1 Mr. Westra pronounces Larry Lee and Tina Poindexter man and wife.
- 2 Lloyd Shoemaker, Cheryl Thibert, Randy Peyatt and Jacquie Petrutis propose a toast.
- 3 Steve Fraizier swings partner Chris Gordon.
- 4 Lisa Walters and Joe Luna dosi-doe.
- 5 Nora (Daisy Mae) Alfonso and Winston (Lil' Abner) Madrigal.

At 8:30 p.m. on December 4th, the Sadie Hawkins Dance was held. It was worth comin' just to see all the studious students dressed like they were from Iowa. Some of the couples got "hitched" by Mr. Westra. Five lucky couples were candidates for Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner, and the couple chosen were Nora Alfonso and Winston Madrigal.

WINTERMAS FAIRE

- 1 "I'll drink to that", says Pam Slate.
- 2 Everyone enjoys a day at the faire.
- 3 Ngoc Nguyen samples kabobs at the Vietnamese booth.
- 4 It's yours for only ... say Lisa Pattison and Kathy Altes.
- 5 Jeff Weidle models the latest fashions from G.Q.

- 1 Mark Lagor, the galloping gourmet, prepares crepes.
- 2 Gabe Garcia, Shirley Poland, and Randy Caires await customers.
- 3 Tina Dominguez and Dyanne Ross ... and we thought there was no Santa.
- 4 Troy Highlen shows off his Renaissance attire.

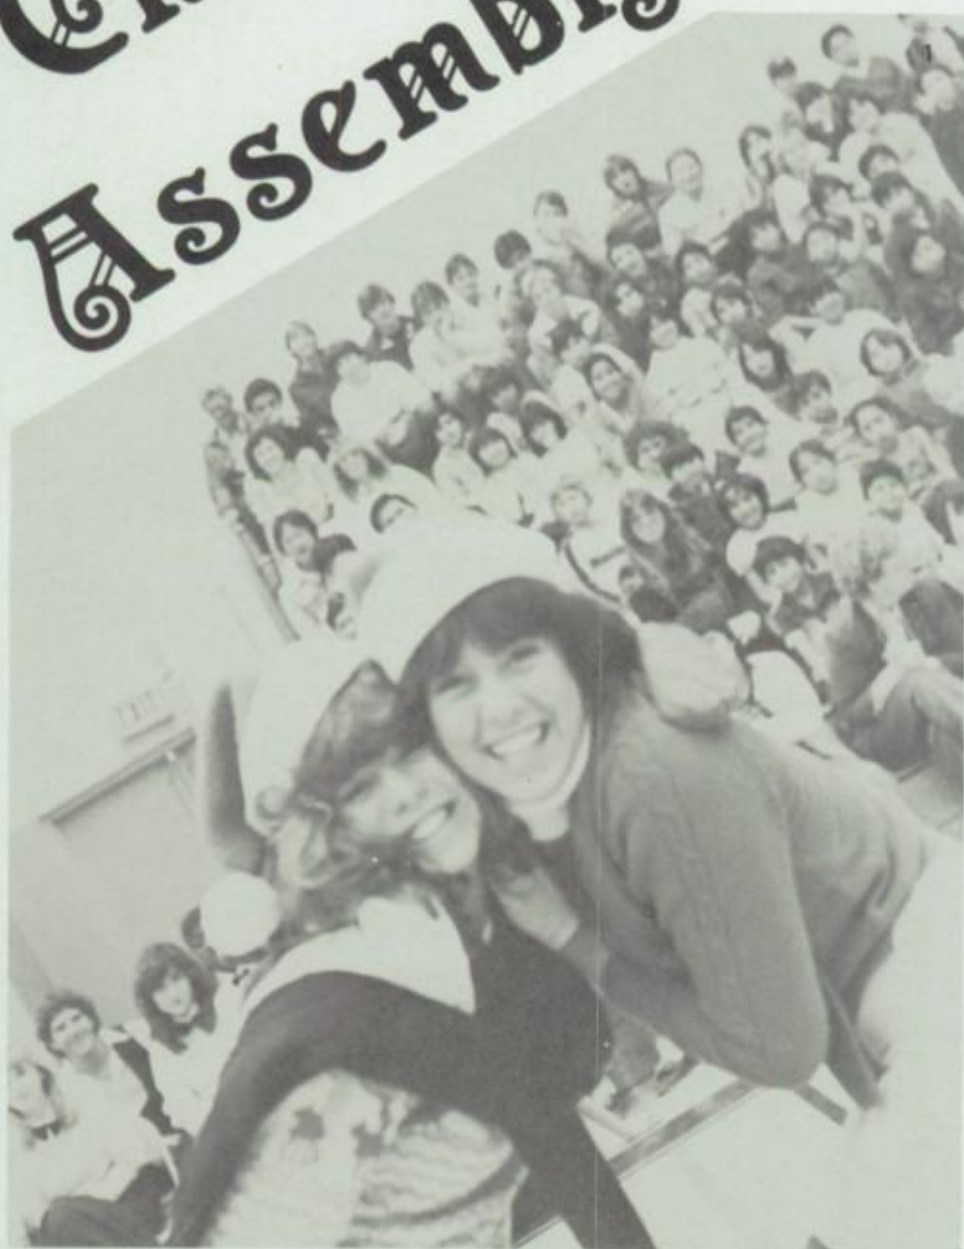

The Wintermas Faire was a welcome diversion from the normal school routine and filled with things to buy. There were various foods from several cultures provided by the foreign language clubs. There was candy, cake, and French pastries and for those who wanted to Christmas shop, there was plenty of merchandise to choose from. The items sold included everything from cloth flowers to jewelry, bumper stickers to picture frames. Those without money were out of luck that day. People dressed in Eliabethan costumes for this occasion.

- 1 Patty Fletcher decorates Christmas ornaments at the Junior Class booth.
- 2 Mr. Allred awaits a cool splash at the sponge throw.
- 3 Sheryl and Marianne smile with satisfaction after successfully making chili.
- 4 Ms. Christjansen makes a pastel drawing of Julie Locy.
- 5 Karen Laird, Suzanne Laird, and Julie Locy: "bubble bubble, toil and trouble ..." to make cotton candy at the Girls' League booth.
- 6 Anna Alvarez piles on the tamales.

Christmas Assembly

- 1 Santa's helpers Karen and Nora snuggle up.
- 2 Jazz Ensemble provides music for the Christmas carolers.
- 3 Young reporter Jeff McKinstry asks Santa for the Nobel Prize for Christmas.
- 4 Douce nuit, Sante nuit ...

The Christmas Assembly, which took place in our gym on Thursday, December 16, was based on the theme "Christmas Around the World." Students from various groups and clubs participated by singing carols and performing dances. These groups included the French Club, Vietnamese Club, Drill Team, a group of Polynesian students, and A.S.B.

Queen Of The Courts

First runner up China Greeney, Queen of the Courts Lisa Walters, second runner up Sandy Hawkins, third runner up Lori Banuelos.

The crowning of the Queen of the Courts took place on Friday, January 14. During half-time, all the candidates who were sponsored by a varsity basketball player were presented.

The exciting moment came when Lisa Walters, who was chosen by the most student votes, was announced the 1983 Queen of the Courts. Her sponsor was Chuy Gonzales. The runners up were: first, China Greeney, second, Sandy Hawkins, and third, Lori Banuelos. To top off the evening the Cavs came through with an exciting victory, 77-72, over Los Amigos.

DONKEY

BASKETBALL

Patty comes in for the kill

You better score!

Pin the tail on the donkey

The Donkey Basketball Game, which was sponsored by the Purple Pit Stop, took place February 16. The Senior-Freshmen team defeated the Junior-Sophomore team by a score of 38-28. The winners received a trophy for their effort. Congratulations to the Seniors (class of 83) who have won for four consecutive years. "Aside from getting a rash and falling down, it was fun riding for three years," commented Senior Anthony Banuelos. Vaiula Tauanuu said her most memorable moment was "when my donkey just sat in the middle of the court and wouldn't move."

CO-ED KING ASSEMBLY

The Co-ed King Assembly did the trick in helping the girls decide who to vote for. The assembly was strictly for girls only! Sponsors tried to gain support for their candidates by dressing them in exotic, original costumes. These costumes ranged from Tarzan to bridesmaid to Chippendale male exotic dancer. The candidates and sponsors participated in events such as the three legged race, a hoola-hoop game, "Simon Says," and more. At the end of the assembly, the girls cast their votes.

1. "Don't BUG me", claims Pat Garcia. 2. Anthony Banuelos, Playmate of the Year. 3. D.J.'s comfort begins with Luvs. 4. Laura gives Chuy his first lesson in ballet. 5. Co-ed candidates and sponsors find it hard exercising the "Richard Simmons" way. 6. Tarzan (Rodney Walden) asks "Will the real Jane please stand up?" 7. Here comes the bride (Lane Knecht) along with Susan and Terri. 8. "Candy dear, please fasten my necklace" says Santiago Coronado. 9. Eric Larson and Brian Jackson show Simon who gives the orders.

Co-Ed Fashions Show

One of the major questions that popped up as the Co-ed approached was "what shall I wear?" To help answer this dilemma Girls League organized their traditional fashion show which featured the latest in elegant eveningwear. Filmy, floaty gowns for the young ladies (white being very popular) were lent by Jabberwocky, and a rainbow of tuxedos for the young men were provided by Gingiss and Allens Tuxedos.

Jiving at the Co-ed

A merry time was had by all caballeros.

The Co-ed, sponsored by Girls League, was held at the elegant Long Beach Elks Club with music provided by Michael Ray, the dazzling D.J. from KIQQ. The theme was the romantic Song sung by Crystal Gayle and Eddie Rabbit called "Just you and I". All through the evening the suspense mounted as everyone waited for the moment when the Co-ed King would be announced.

JUST YOU AND I

*Just you and I
Sharing our love together
and I know in time
We'll build the dreams we treasure
We'll be alright
Just you and I
And I remember our first embrace
That smile that was on your face
The promises that we made and now your love is my reward and I love you even more than I ever did before
Just you and I
We care and trust each other
With you in my life
There'll never be another
We'll be alright
Just you and I
We made it
You and I*

CIF HERE WE COME

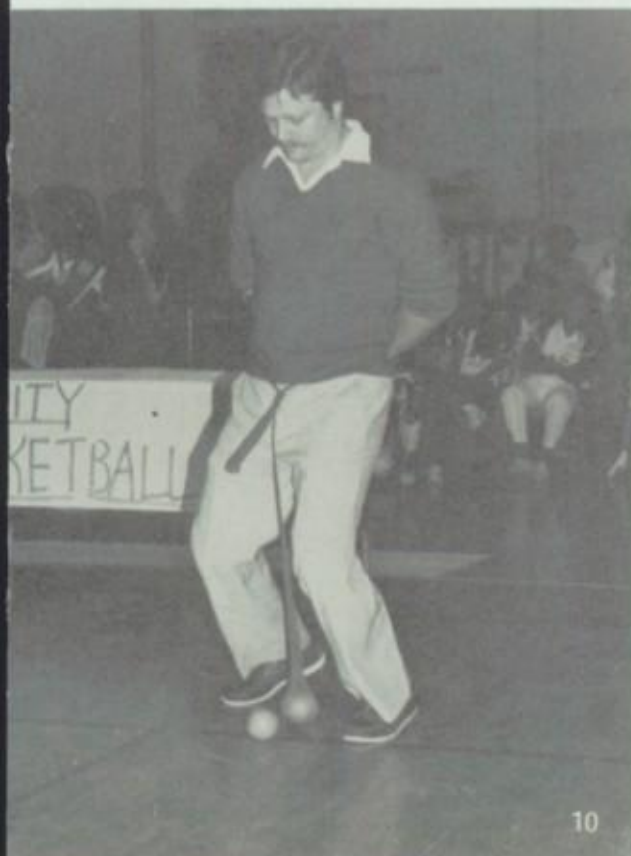

The CIF sports assembly was held in honor and encourage the CIF bound Varsity Boy's Basketball Team and the Varsity Girl's Field Hockey team. The Varsity Wrestling Team was also introduced to the student body.

Members of these teams participated in outrageous but hilarious activities such as a wet sponge toss and a pie eating contest. The team's coaches were also given an opportunity to get in on the action. They played "hit the orange" which caused the students to roar with laughter.

- 1 Denise Lichter and Vaiula Tauanuu prepare for a feast of pie.
- 2 Ladies and gentlemen start your engines!
- 3 I'd give anything for a fork.
- 4 Michelle Vowell, with the help of David James, enjoys the pie.
- 5 Wipe your mouths.
- 6 Felix Vasquez feeds his face.
- 7 Richard Melgoza, before and after.
- 8 I hope this is water soluble.
- 9 Chris Sloniger tries to avoid the wet sponge.
- 10 An embarrassing moment for Coach Vanerwolk.
- 11 Miss Snider celebrates her victory.
- 12 Chuy Gonzalez knows the Cavs are no. #11

Spirited cheerleaders haunt the Grove game.

Songsters perform one of their award winning routines.

The requirements for the Varsity squads were very demanding. Each girl was expected to compete in a variety of routines that required physical coordination. In order to improve their skills they attended cheerleading class every day where they practiced and planned their activities. They attended both major and minor sports. They had a very good time although they put in much time and effort.

Girls League was established to promote service to the school and to the community. Some of the things they sponsored were the Coed dance, Coed Fashion Show and the Senior Tea. In order to pay for these services, they sold Christmas tree ornaments, Halloween spook-o-grams and See's suckers. To qualify for membership, students must petition. They must have a grade point average of a minimum 2.5. They are then interviewed and selected by the officers of the club.

He Lives For His Computer

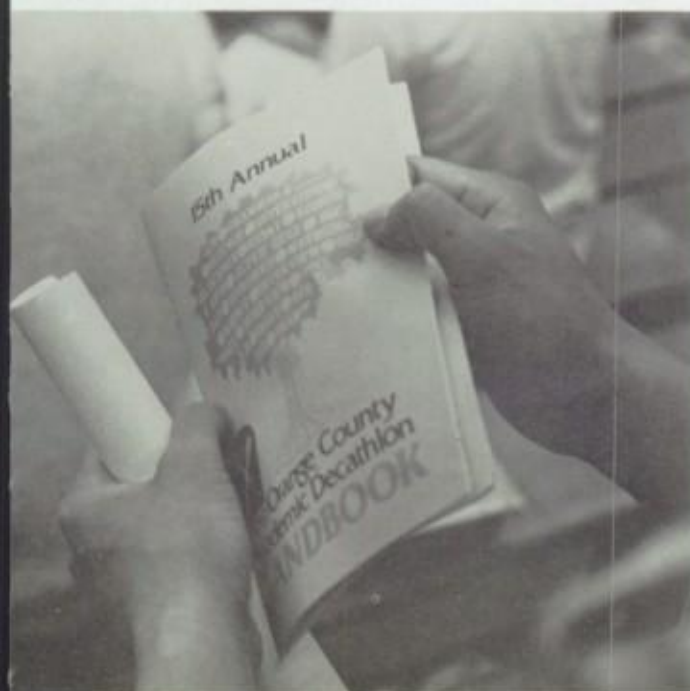

Jeff McKinstry is a computer fanatic. After taking a computer class in BASIC (beginners all purpose instruction code) in his junior year, that is all Jeff has been interested in. Since it became his favorite class, he felt he absolutely had to have a computer. After much thought and much convincing his parents of the usefulness of a computer, he finally settled on a Commodore VIC-20. People would often ask him "What do you do with it anyway?" Jeff would turn red and say "I write computer games." He says that if you think playing computer games is hard, you should try writing them. Jeff likes computers because they are a challenge and fun, and he can make money doing it. He spends every extra available moment programming (when he is not playing tennis).

Jeff McKinstry, Karen Gayer and Rhonda Fickling wait for the next competition.

Santiago's Brain Trust

The Academic Decathlon is quiz tape contest, held annually, where all the schools in Orange County compete. All the students who compete on their own time. There is hours of studying and preparation required. This year the decathlon was held on Saturday November 20, 1982. It was held at Westminster High School. Our team that went this year consisted of Pam Slate, Jeff McKinstry, Amy Rogers, Cheryl Liscotti, Rhonda Fickling, and Kim Brumfield. Our alternate team consisted of Long Tran, Nguyet Vuong, Malina Leang, and Karen Gayer.

LORA MATTINGLY

Lora's activities included Band, Almost Anything Goes, Girl's League, A.S.B., C.S.F., journalism, and editing the school newspaper. "If I hadn't experienced these events I wouldn't have my friends or school spirit," said Lora.

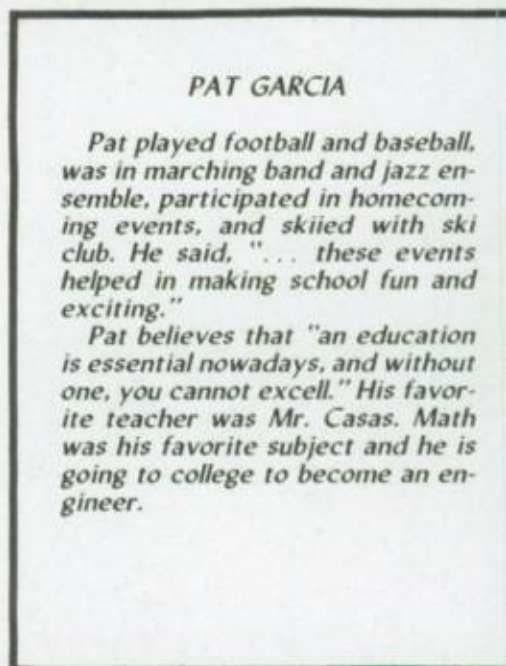

As she plans to continue her current career as a dental assistant. Her favorite subject was English, and Mr. Anderson was her favorite teacher.

MOLLY BRISLIN

Molly was in Drill Team, Band, Girls' League, Journalism, and C.S.F. She said, "Being involved has helped make school 'funner' for me."

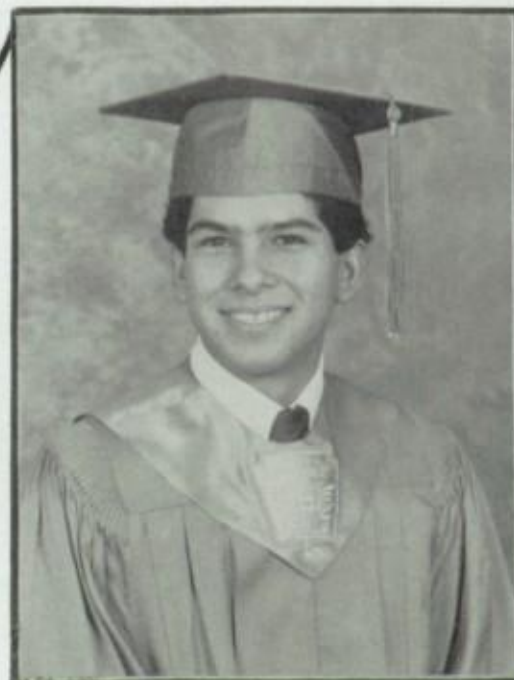

Molly's plans after high school are less practical than some but very exciting nevertheless. "I want to move to a fascinating country, continue my education there, travel, and be extremely happy," she said. Her favorite subject was English, and she had no favorite teacher.

PAT GARCIA

Pat played football and baseball, was in marching band and jazz ensemble, participated in homecoming events, and skied with ski club. He said, "... these events helped in making school fun and exciting."

Pat believes that "an education is essential nowadays, and without one, you cannot excell." His favorite teacher was Mr. Casas. Math was his favorite subject and he is going to college to become an engineer.

VAIULA TAUANUU

Vaiula was vice president of the band, in sports, the pianist for the jazz choir, Senior Class vice president, C.S.F. Treasurer, and active in Girl's League M.E.C.H.A. Club, and sports.

She will attend a four year college and become a lawyer or a music teacher. She plans someday to open a business in her homeland, the Samoan Islands. Her favorite subject was music.

SANDY HAWKINS

Sandy participated in Drill Team, Band, Almost Anything Goes, Ski Club, C.S.F., cheerleading, and A.S.B. She will study psychology at either the University of Southern California or the University of California, Irvine. She chose this field because she enjoys helping people. English was the subject she liked most, and she did not discriminate among teachers. She liked them all.

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of American High schools. The members are nominated and elected by the school faculty. The election of members is based on character, scholarship, leadership, and service to the school, not on scholarship and character alone. The minimum scholarship grade average is a 3.0 in academic subjects.

ANTHONY BANUELOS

Anthony's activities were baseball, C.S.F., A.S.B. President, and class president in his freshman and sophomore years. He said that his memories of Santiago will be great ones because of these activities.

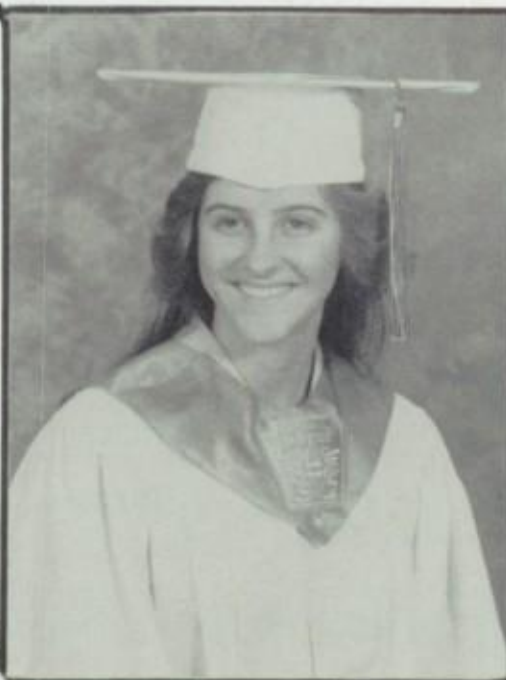

Anthony plans to go to college and major in business. His best subject was math. Mr. Enders, Mr. Raugh, and Mr. Heusuer were his favorite teachers because of their encouragement.

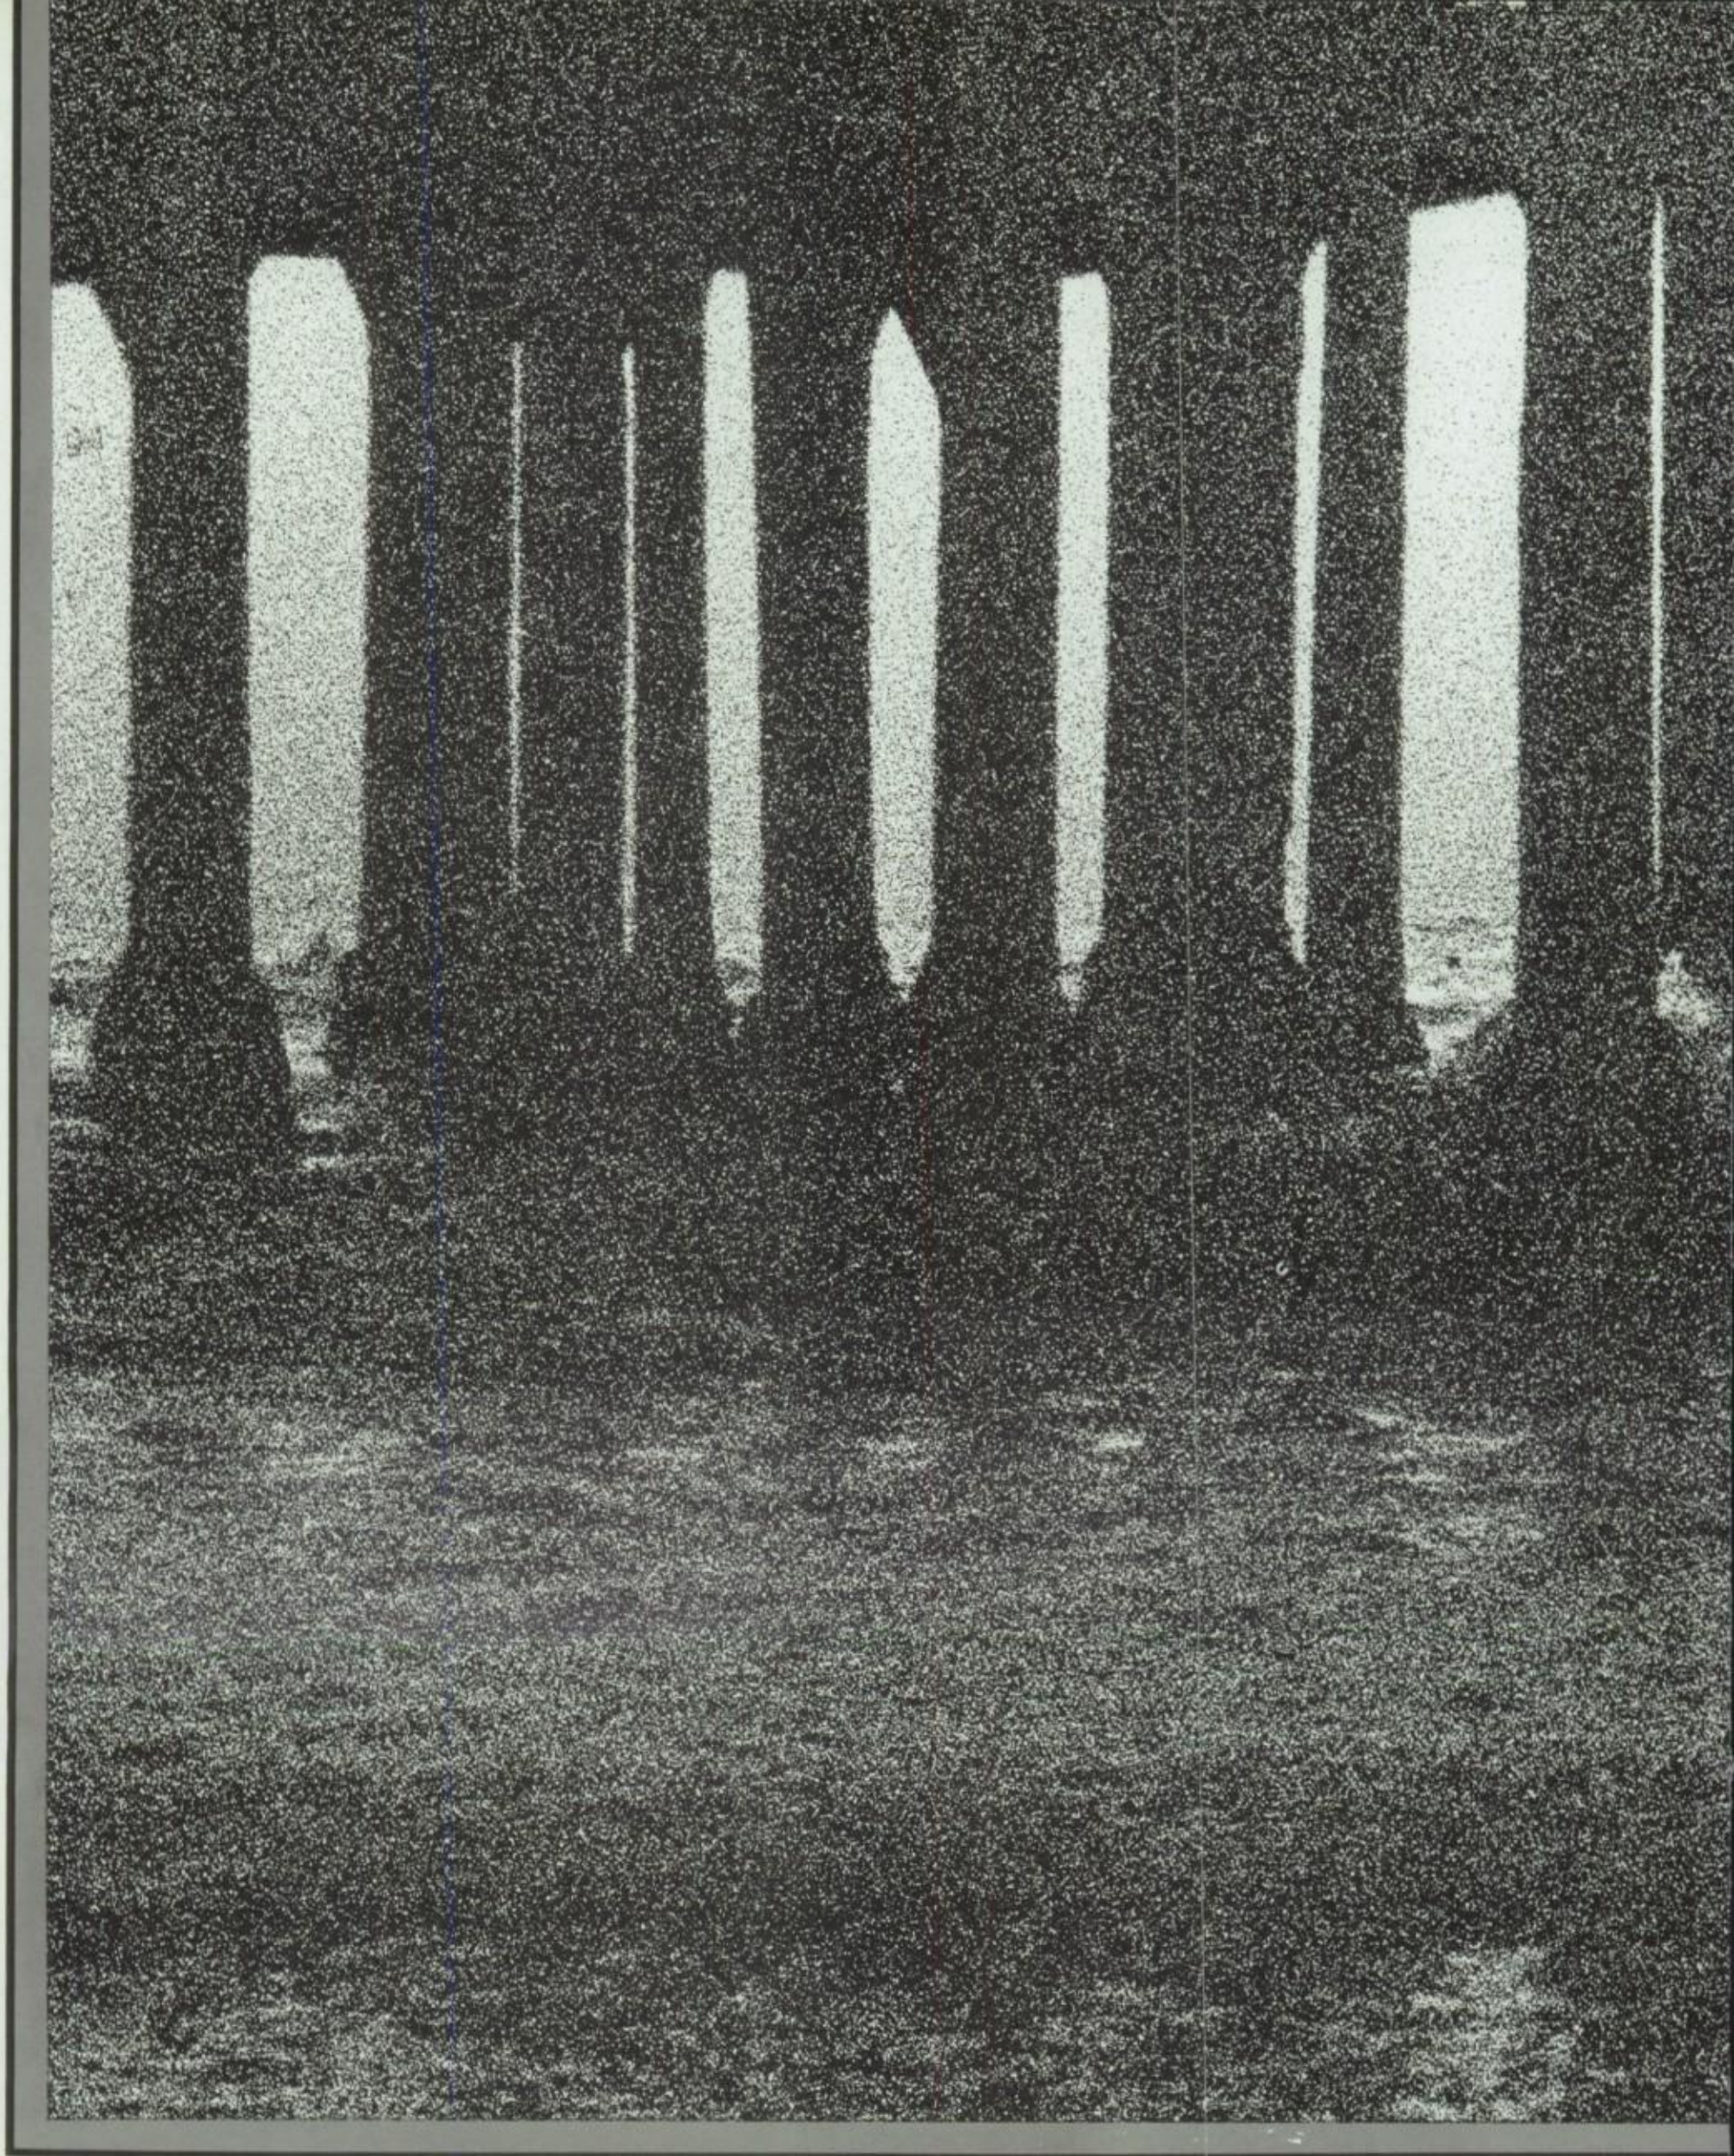

LISA PATTISON

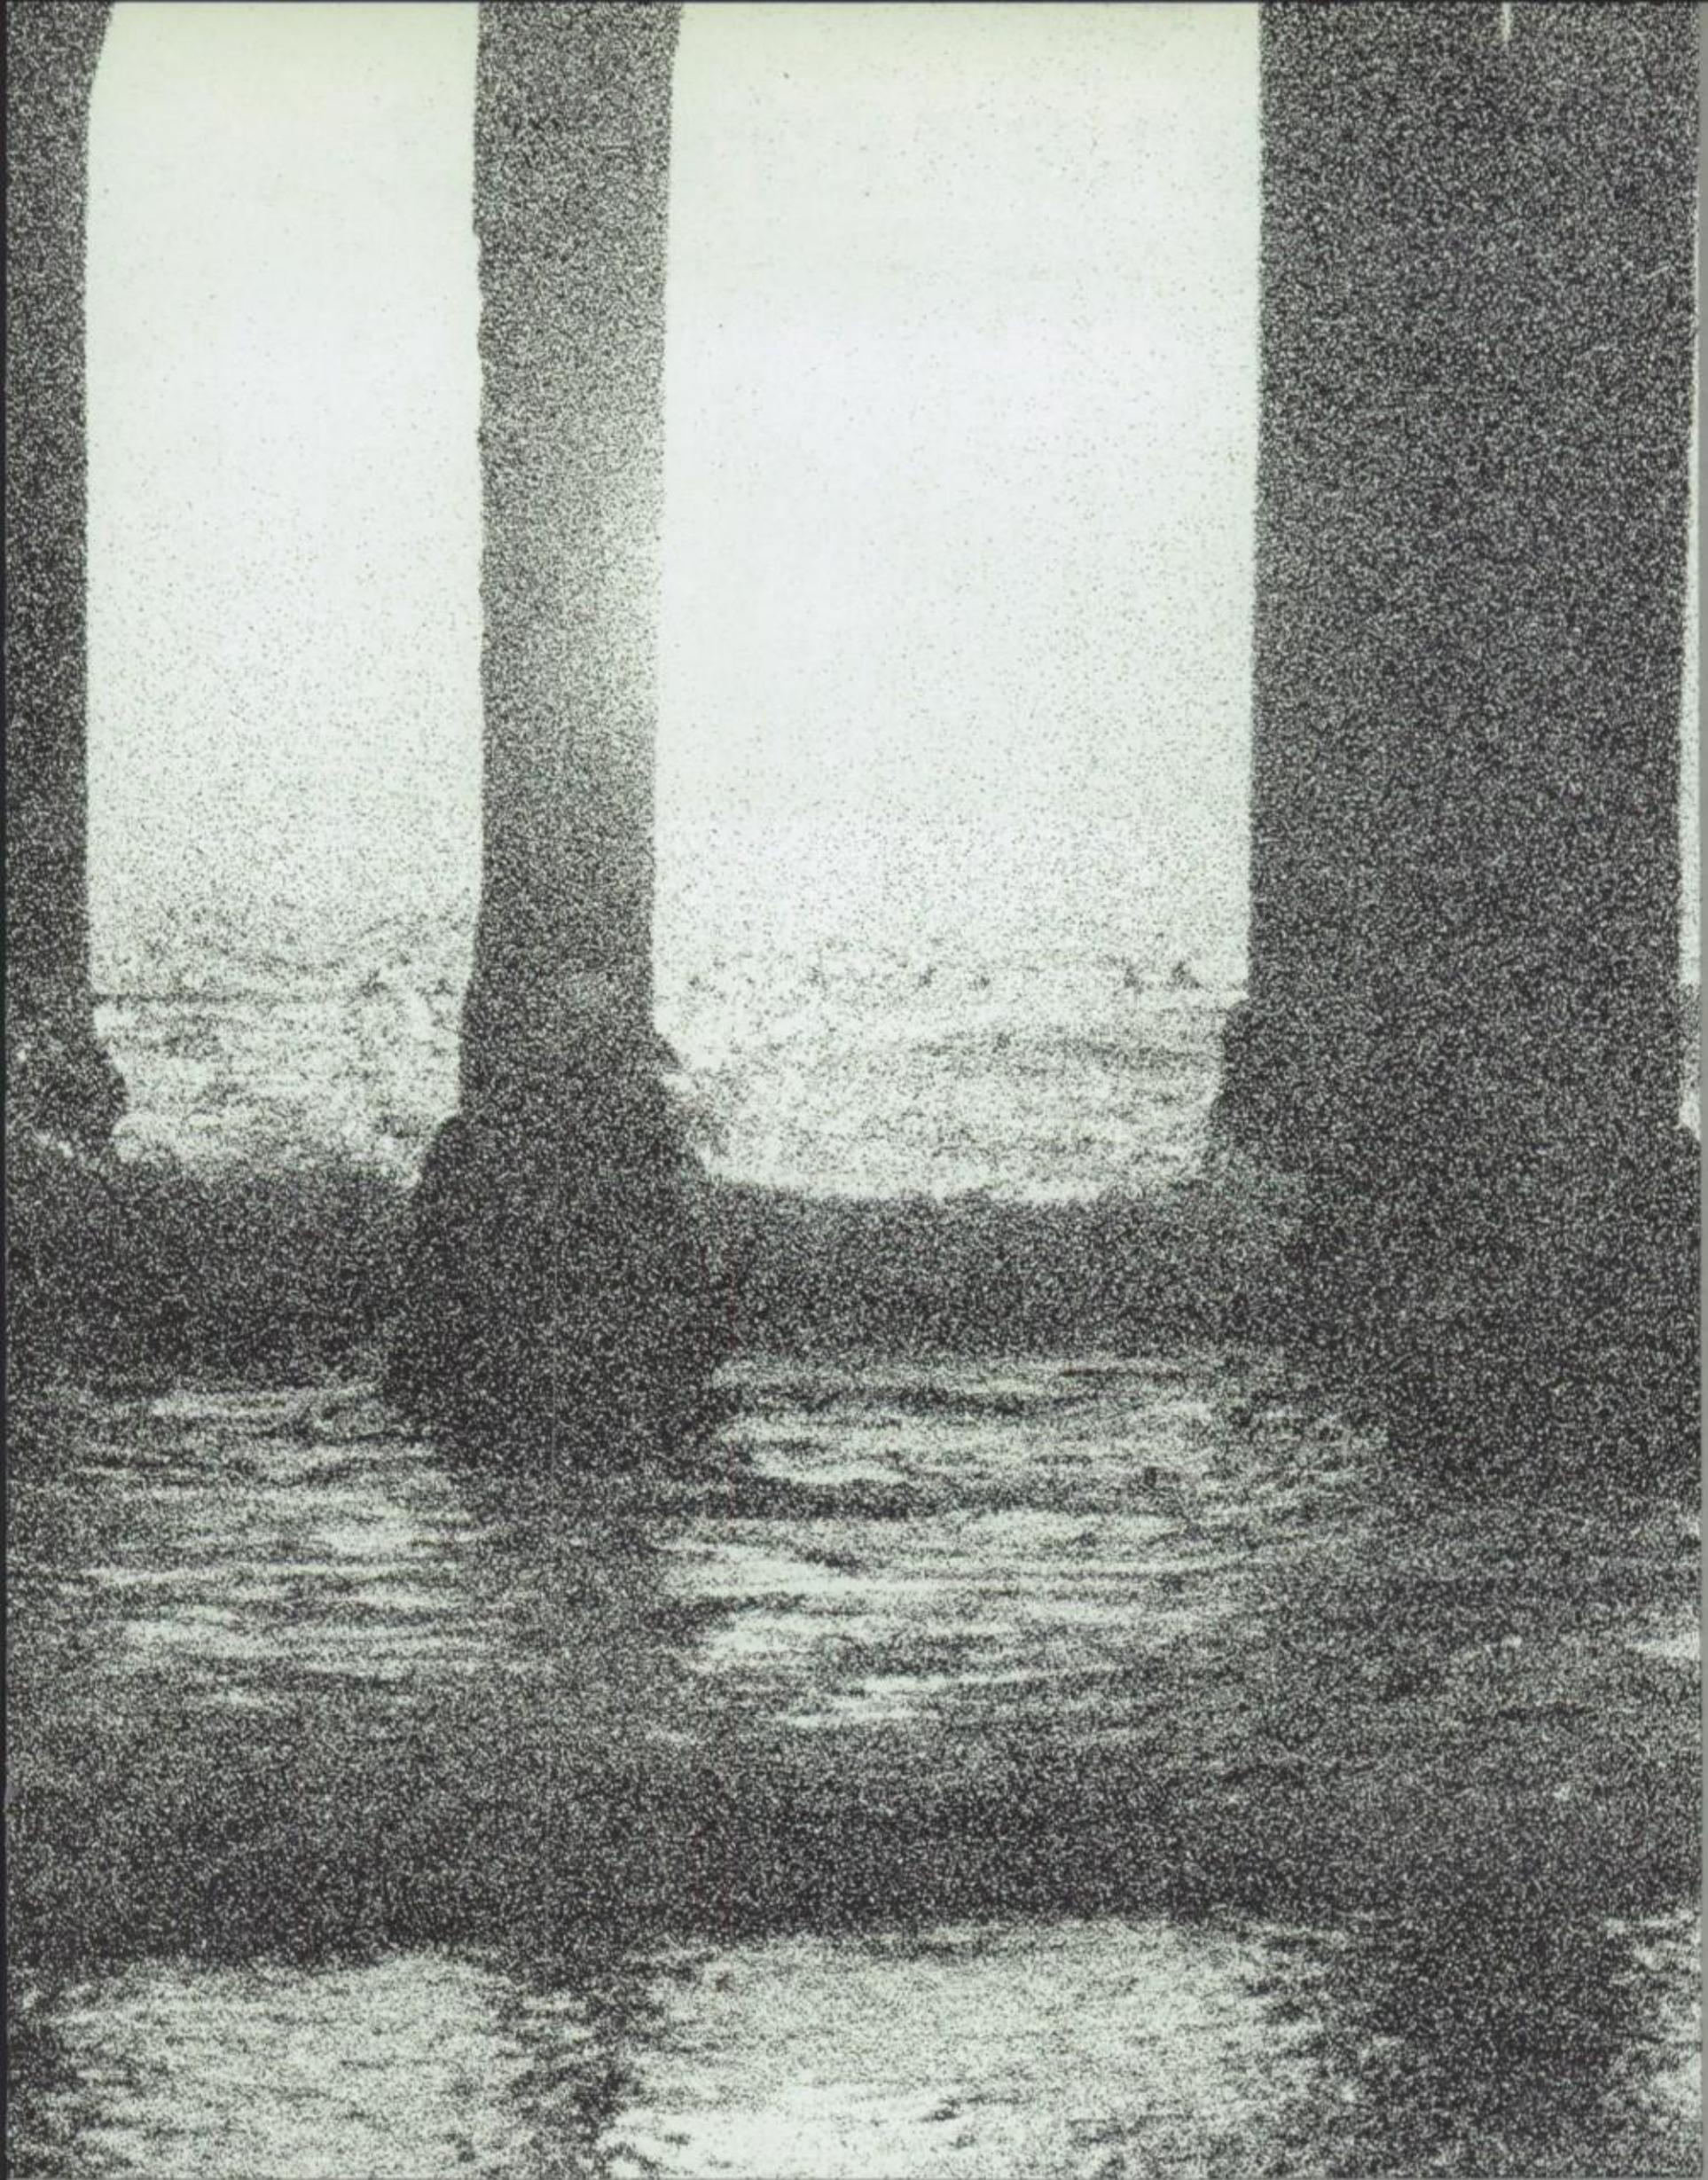

Lisa was in drill team, swimming, and pepsters. "These activities gave me the opportunity to meet many people and learn to get along with them," she said.

Her favorite subject was computer science. She enjoyed working with computers and learning about them. This is why she plans to attend college and major in computer science. Mr. Gaynor was her favorite teacher.

GO-CAVS-GO

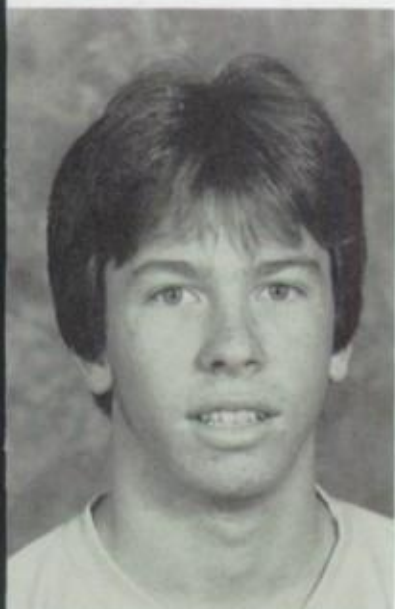

Santiago's Varsity Squad had an outstanding season with a case of bad luck. The mighty Cavs went into a league start with a record of 4-1-1. Unknowingly playing with an ineligible player, the Cavs had to forfeit all of their games which put them to a 0-5 record. The Cavs had a super team with players like sophomore running-back Ricky Simmons, who rushed his way to the top ten in the county. Although the Cavs had many injuries they managed to defeat teams like Bellflower, Costa Mesa, Pioneer, Bolsa, and Garden Grove. The 1982 Varsity Squad deserve great honor for bringing their team up from a sixteen game losing streak. The Cavs are still #1.

Santiago's Wrestling team was in a rebuilding year with many new players. Wrestling is unique because it is an individual effort but also is a team sport. The new coach, Pete Vanderwolk, put a lot of time and headaches into this team to bring out a fine group of wrestlers. The Varsity MVP was Joe Luna with freshman Doug Morse taking home Most Improved. The Junior Varsity M.V.P. was Kevin Carlson, and Andy Salcido became the Most Improved J.V. wrestler. Santiago put out four C.I.F. finalists: Karl Poland (107 lbs.) Chris Garcia (134 lbs.) Santiago's Varsity Basketball team made its third consecutive trip to the C.I.F. playoffs with a 17-7 record. All-league performers were Chuy Gonzales, Chris Sloniger, and Rich Melgoza. Chuy and Chris led the Cavs in scoring with identical 20.1 averages (sixth in Orange County). Rich was number one in Orange County with 241 assists which was also good for number nine on the C.I.F. all time list. Chuy was also twelfth in Orange County with a 10.8 rebounding average.

This edition of the Cavs was the most entertaining in the schools's history, averaging 80.1 points per game with dazzling run and gun offense. With only one player over six feet tall it was just a tremendous accomplishment for these players. A job well done!

CIF RUNNER UP!!! That's how Field Hockey ended. The Lady Cavs' season record was 12 wins, 5 losses and 2 ties. The most exciting and meaningful win was a 3 to 1 game against Grove — that was the first time we have beaten Grove, but won't be the last!!

The CIF final game against Grove was played in adverse weather conditions, however, the Lady Cavs held the Argonauts to a scoreless ball game. With two minutes to go in the 10 minute overtime, the Lady Cavs allowed two goals and became the CIF Runner-up team for 1983. The Ladies are to be commended for their outstanding effort. BEIRUT: A SHATTERED CITY

The invasion began on June 6, 1982. Beirut, capital of Lebanon, was the headquarters for The Palestinian Liberation Organization (PLO). Israel's attacks on Beirut were to force the PLO out of the city. United States special envoy Phillip Habib tried to negotiate the evacuation of the PLO from Beirut. The Israeli's however, broke several cease fires, holding back the negotiations. Israel came under heavy worldwide pressure and condemnation for its aggression. After an agreement was finally made, United States Marines landed on September 1, 1982, to aid the evacuation of seven thousand PLO guerrillas. By September 4, six thousand of the Palestinians had been evacuated to other Arab countries. It is estimated that the damage in Beirut was ten billion dollars.

MEDICAL BREAK THROUGH

Sixty-one year old Dentist Barney Clark received the world's first permanent artificial heart. The plastic device was invented by Doctor Robert Jarvik. The plastic device was invented by Doctor Robert Jarvik. The heart's cost is about thirty-five thousand dollars-this price includes support equipment, installation fees, and electricity. Although Barney Clark is expected to live, his life will be a difficult one. He has to remain attached to sixfoot long tubes which are connected to three hundred and seventy five pounds of equipment mounted on a wheeled cart.

Reliable Tylenol pain reliever for millions, brought death to seven persons in Chicago. In October of 1982, a maniac placed bottles of cyanide-laced Tylenol capsules in random stores along State Route 53. The murderer was not concerned with who he killed.

People began fearing copycat poisonings. In Oroville, California, strychnine was found in Tylenol in a drug store. Also, in Colorado, Visine eye drops were contaminated with acid and burned the eyes of a Veteran's Hospital patient. After these incidents, the manufactures of Tylenol and other pain relievers began making tamperproof packages to win back the customers they had lost due to the fear of contamination.

HEADLINERS

A PRINCE WAS BORN

In June of 1982, Princess Diana of Wales gave birth to a 7-lb., 1½ oz., blue-eyed son who will be the future king of England. Named Prince William Arthur Philip Louis, he is second in line to the British throne behind his father, Prince Charles. This happy occasion brought the people of England into the streets to herald their future king.

UNEMPLOYMENT

Many Americans suffered the loss of their jobs as the recession worsened. Steel-plants, mines, and car factories shut down and left their employees jobless. Reaching 10. in September of 1982, the unemployment rate was the highest in forty-one years. This rate meant that 11.3 million persons were out of work. Later, in December, the unemployment rate reached 10.8%.

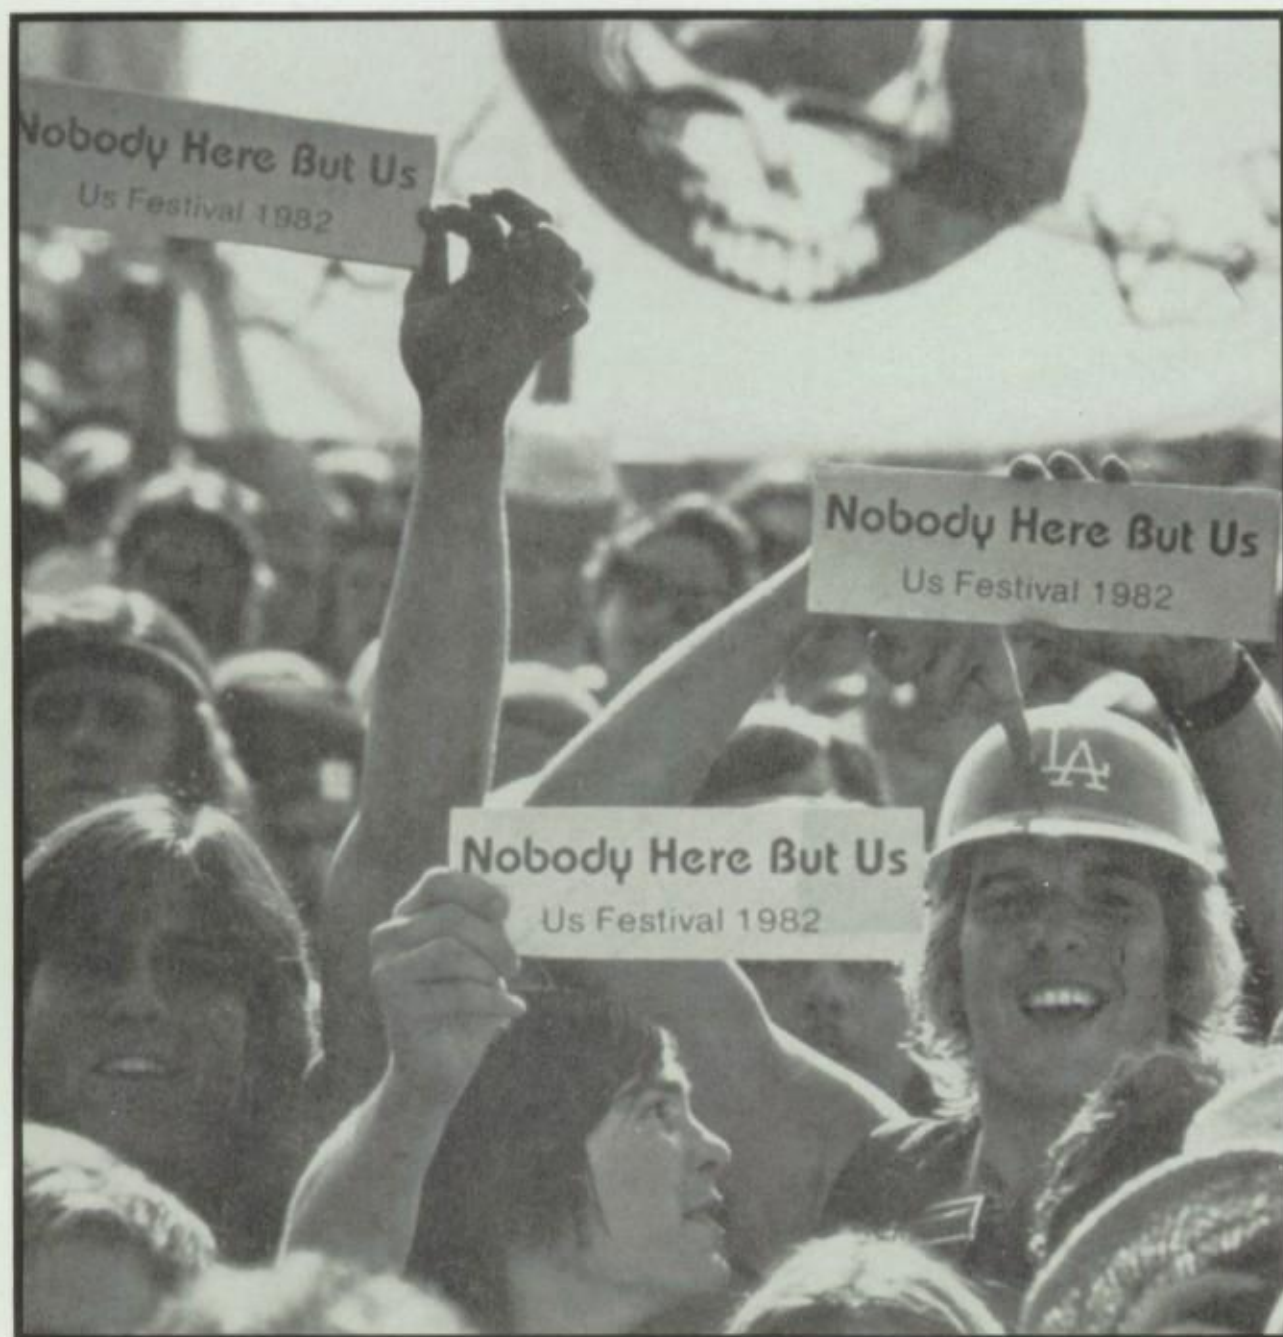

DRUGS OR BUST

On October 19, 1982, fifty-seven year old John DeLorean, owner of the DeLorean Motor Company, was arrested for attempting to acquire 220 pounds of cocaine worth $24 million. Assistant U.S. Attorney James Walsh reported that video tapes of DeLorean meeting with undercover agents showed he was hoping to generate $60 million from selling heroin and cocaine. He was trying to save his car company from bankruptcy, but seven hours before his arrest the British government had closed his Belfast factory.

HEADLINERS

ROCK FESTIVAL

The US Festival took place in September of 1982. The festival lasted three days—Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Steven Wozniak, founder of Apple Computer Company and multi-millionaire, promoted the concert which cost him up to twelve and a half million dollars. The festival site was Devore, California, in the San Bernardino Hills. Despite the hot, dry, and dusty climate of this area, four hundred thousand concertgoers came to enjoy the music and bask in the sun. Among the groups that entertained the large crowd were: Fleetwood Mac, Tom Petty, The Police, Pat Benatar, Talking Heads, The Cars, Jackson Browne, The Kinks, and the B-52's.

NEW LEADERS

In November, California elected Republican George Deukmejian as its new governor. Narrowly defeating Democrat Tom Bradley, Deukmejian took the place of former Governor Jerry Brown. The son of an Armenian rug merchant, Deukmejian has spent sixteen years in the state legislature and four as state attorney general. He inherited a one and a half billion dollar deficit left by the recession and the previous administration.

The Soviet Union also had a new leader come into power. Yuri Andropov took over as the new Communist Party Leader following the death of Leonid Brezhnev.

Polish Solidarity leader Lech Walesa was freed in November of 1982 after eleven months in detention. In December of 1981, following the military crackdown, he was taken into custody due to his leadership and continued opposition to the government. His independent union, Solidarity, was formally banned by the government on the eighth of October, 1982. On the tenth of November, Solidarity was dealt a serious blow when it failed to organize a nationwide strike. Nevertheless, Lech Walesa and the people of Poland will continue their struggle for freedom against a communist government.

HITS AND FADS

ROCK- A-BILLY

Rock-a-billy brought back music and dress styles that were similar to those of the fifties. For dress, guys wore bowling shirts, pleated pants, and wingtip shoes. Girls wore poodle skirts, bobby socks, and saddle shoes. The music was lively and fun to dance to. A few of the popular bands were the "Stray Cats", and "T-Birds", and the "Blasters".

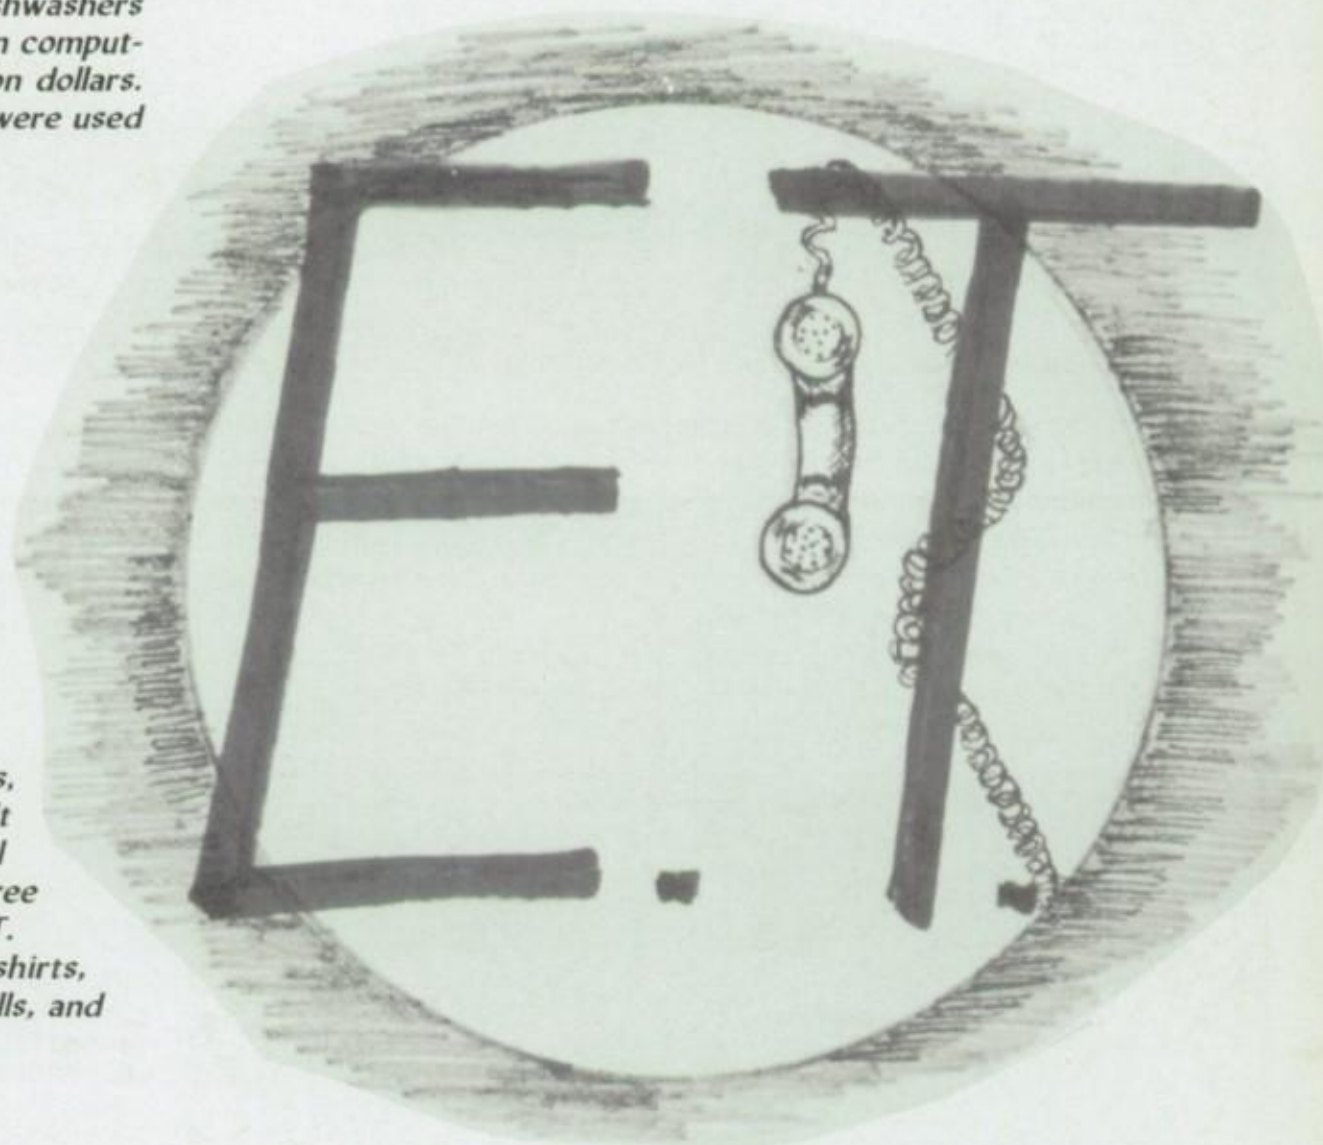

MAN OF THE YEAR

Time Magazine chose the computer as its "Man of the Year". Personal computers are quickly creeping into American homes just like T.V.'s and dishwashers did. An estimate for 1982 sales was 2.8 million computers made by over 100 companies at 4.9 billion dollars. Around half of the personal computers sold were used mainly for games.

E.T. MANIA

One of the biggest hits of the year was Steven Spielberg's film "E.T. - The Extra-Terrestrial." The movie was about a lovable alien, E.T., who finds himself stranded on Earth. The three foot, six inch tall creature is discovered by a young boy and the two become best friends. E.T. then attempts to "phone home" so he can get back to his planet.

The film received nine Oscar nominations, one of which was for best picture of 1982. It turned out to be one of the most successful movies ever. Profits made reached over three hundred million dollars, excluding all the E.T. souvenirs that were sold. These included t-shirts, video game cartridges, bumper stickers, dolls, and even E.T. Halloween costumes.

HITS AND FADS

HIT MOVIES

The most popular movies were about everything from a naval academy to a man pretending to be a woman. In "An Officer and a Gentleman", Richard Gere portrayed a man who had nothing to live for and found his only hope in becoming a United States Naval Officer. The film received eight Academy Award nominations. "Tootsie" starred Dustin Hoffman who had to disguise himself as a woman in order to work as an actor. This comedy received outstanding reviews and was nominated in ten categories.

ies.

Sequels rarely surpass the success of their first part, but "Rocky III", the third of the Rocky films, was the most successful of the three. Sylvester Stallone was given a boxer who defeated opponents twice his size.

The film which received the highest critical reviews was "Gandhi". This biographical film starred Ben Kingsley as the Indian spiritual leader. It received eleven Academy Award nominations.

MEN AT WORK

The Australian group, Men At Work, proved that hard work does pay off. The five member band (Colin Hay, Ron Strykert, Jerry Speiser, Greg Ham, and John Rees) received a Grammy Award for best new artists of 1982. Their debut album, "Business As Usual", which was nominated for best album of the year, went to number one on the pop album charts and remained there for seventeen consecutive weeks. This broke the previous record of fifteen weeks which was held by the Monkees in the late sixties. Their biggest hits from "Business As Usual" were "Who Can Be Now", and "Down Under".

DEPARTURES

THE WHO'S FAREWELL

The popular television series *M*A*S*H* came to an end after eleven successful seasons. Based on the Korean war, the show lasted three times longer than the real war. The last episode, which was two and a half hour special, had one of the largest number of viewers in television history.

After singing for about seventeen years, The Who decided to end touring. On their final tour through the United States, which took place in the final months of 1982, The Who played in thirty-three cities.

The British band first gained recognition in 1965. Throughout their successful career, The Who had hits with albums such as "It's Hard", "Who Are You?" and "Who's Next". They also have made films, two of which are "Tommy", and "The Kids Are Alright."

The members of this popular band are: Roger Daltrey, Pete Townsend, John Entwistle, and Kenny Jones. They will be missed by millions of concertgoers throughout the world.

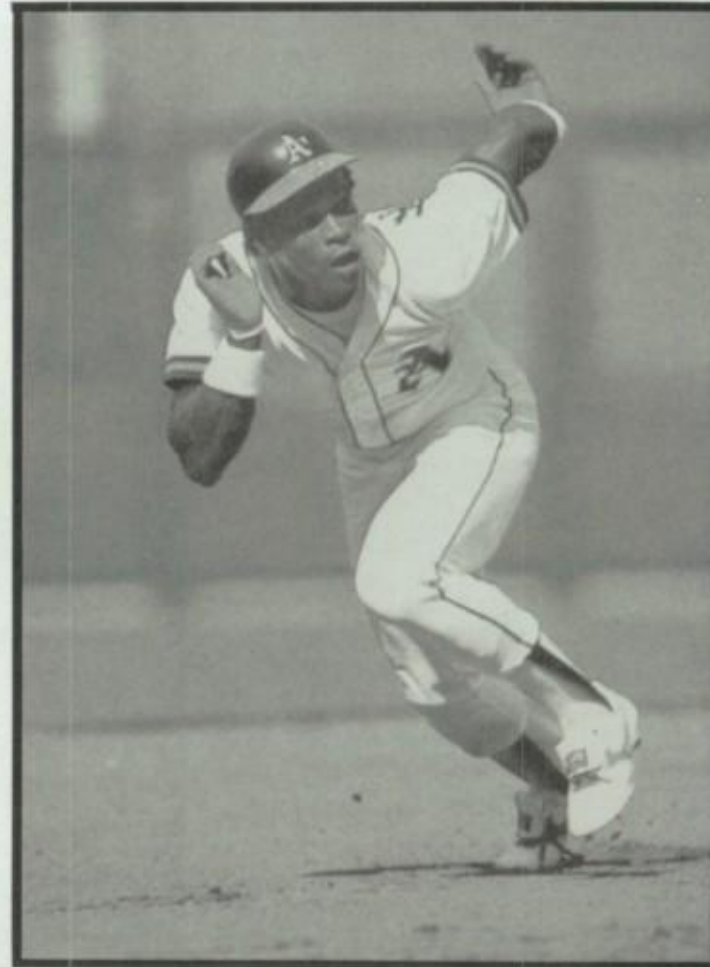

Many well-known and beloved celebrities passed away during 1982 and early 1983. They provided entertainment and enriched the lives of many. They also made important contributions to film, politics, and music. Those who passed away were Actress/Princess Grace Kelly, Soviet Leader Leonid Brezhnev, Actors Ingrid Bergman, Henry Fonda, Comedians Marty Feldman, Paul Lynde, and Singer Karen Carpenter.

SPORTS

WHAT A STEAL!

Oakland A's outfielder Rickey Henderson stole his way into the baseball record book. At age twenty-three, Henderson broke Lou Brock's record of one hundred and eighteen stolen bases which was set eight years ago. During the 1982 season, Henderson stole a total of one hundred and thirty bases. He also passed Ty Cobb's sixty-seven year old record of getting caught thirty-eight times. Nevertheless, Rickey Henderson was successful in seventy-six percent of his steals.

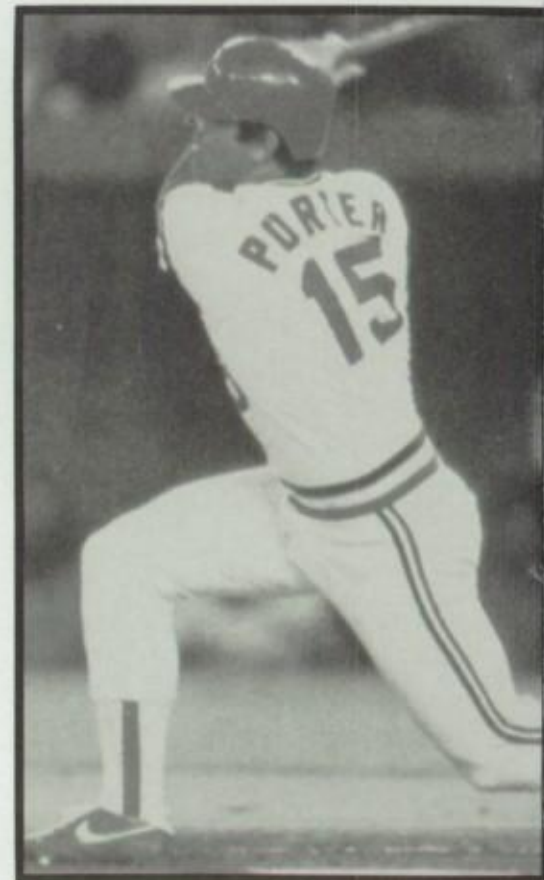

THE GREAT GRETZKY

Wayne Gretzky, of the Edmonton Oilers hockey team, amazed everyone in 1982. At just twenty-one, he holds twenty-seven individual National Hockey League (NHL) records, the most incredible ones being ninety-two goals and one hundred and twenty assists for two hundred and twelve points in eighty games. He was named the 1982 Sportsman of the Year. Wayne Gretzky was also chosen Most Valuable Player for the third consecutive year. For those not familiar with ice hockey, his record would be the equivalent of a baseball player hitting over seventy-eight homeruns in one season.

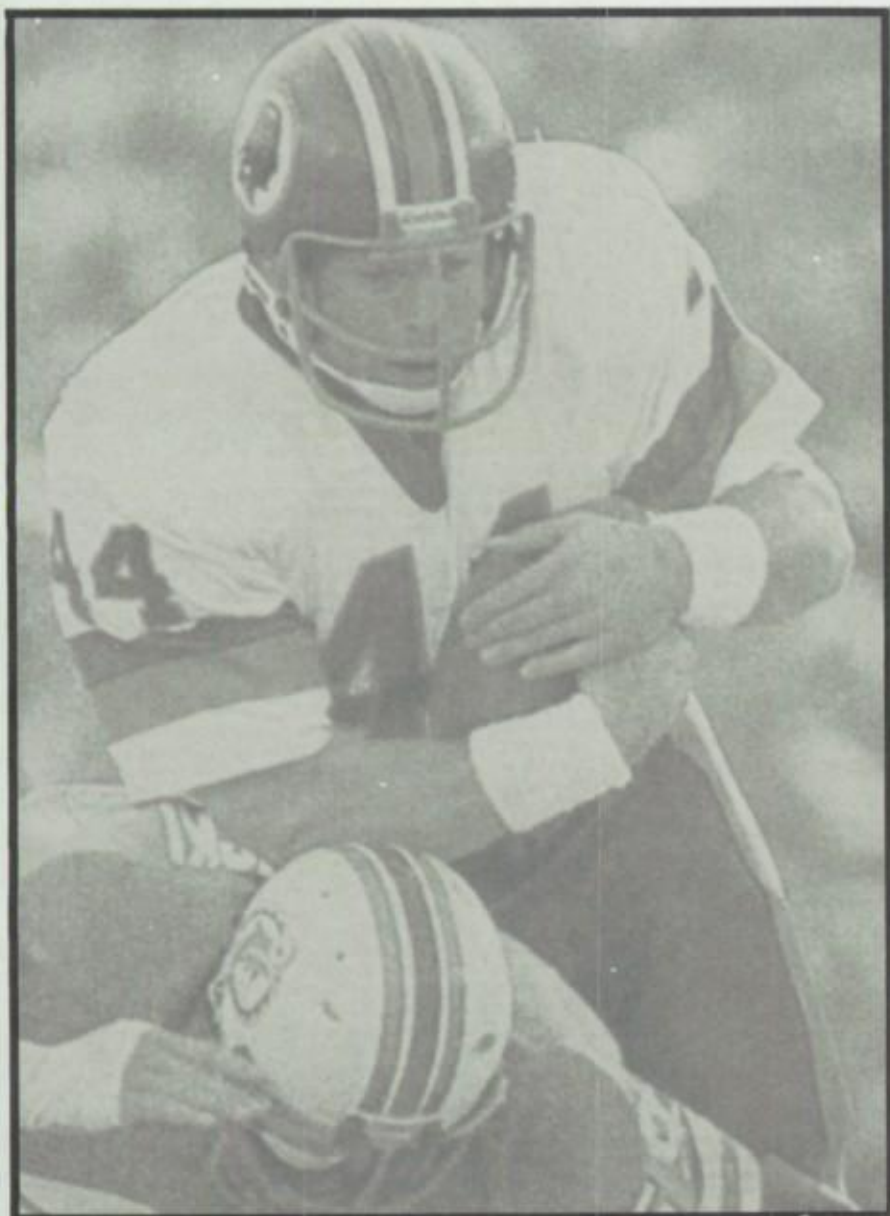

The St. Louis Cardinals won the Seventy-ninth World Series. They defeated the Milwaukee Brewers and had much help in doing so from their catcher Darrell Porter. He was named Most Valuable Player in both the National League playoffs and the World Series. Porter had contributed five runs batted in and was excellent defensively as catcher for the Cardinals.

WORLD SERIES MVP

SUPER BOWL XVII

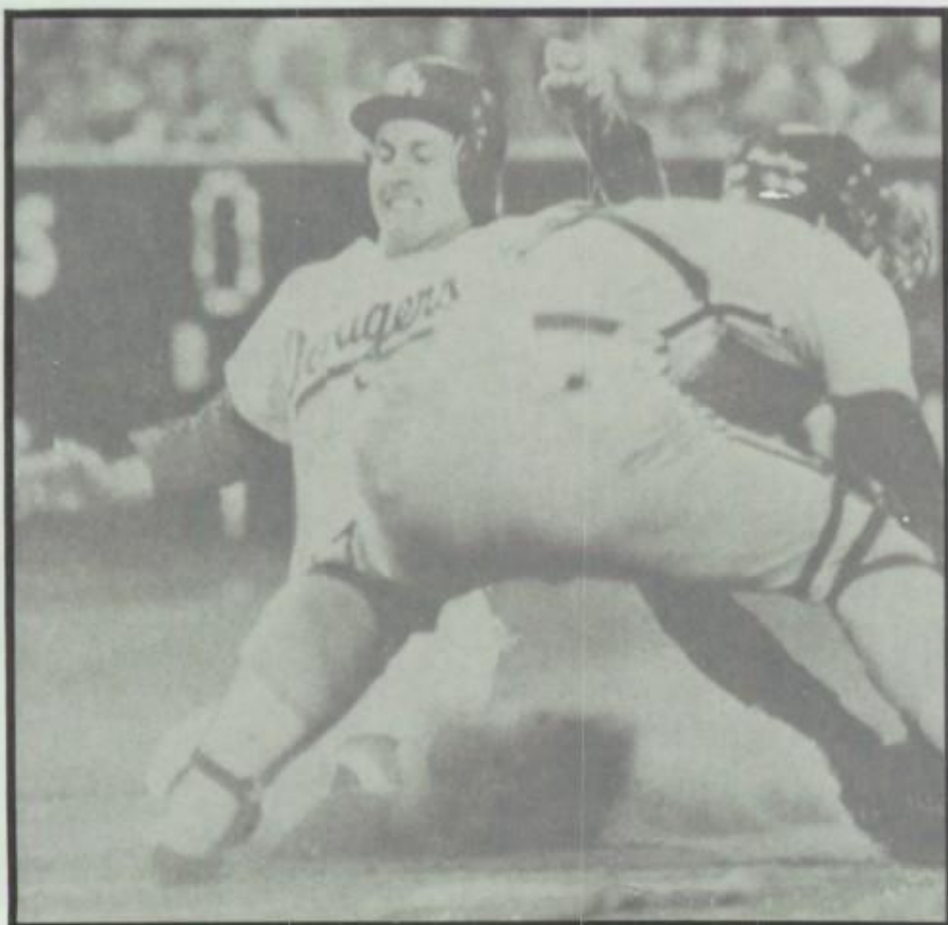

The Washington Redskins defeated the favored Miami Dolphins, 27-17, to win Superbowl XVII. The game was played on Sunday, January 30, 1983 in Pasadena's Rose Bowls before 103,667 fans. The Redskins were led by full-back John Riggins who rushed for 166 yards on 38 carries. These were both Superbowl records. Riggins was named Most Valuable Player of the game for his outstanding effort.

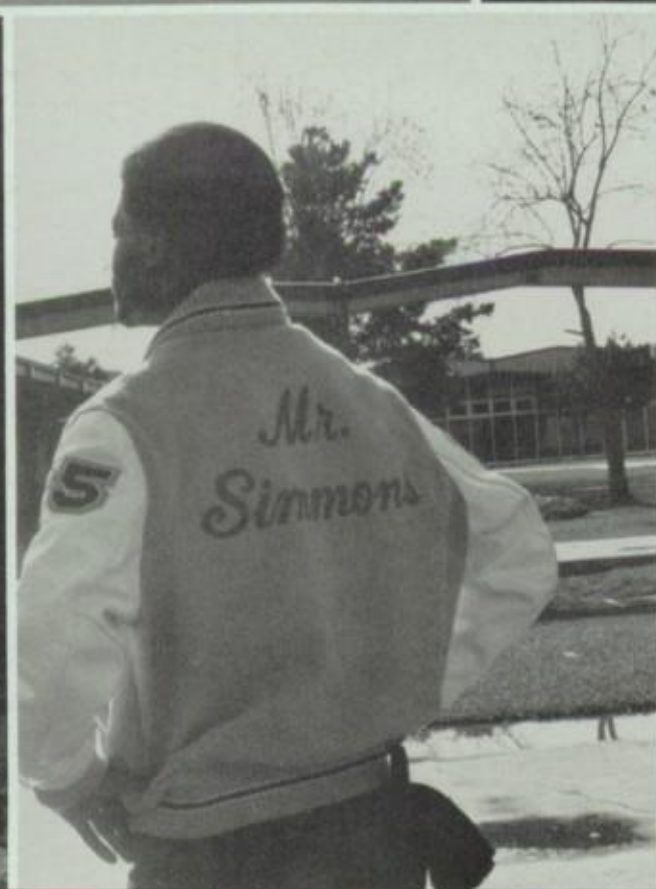

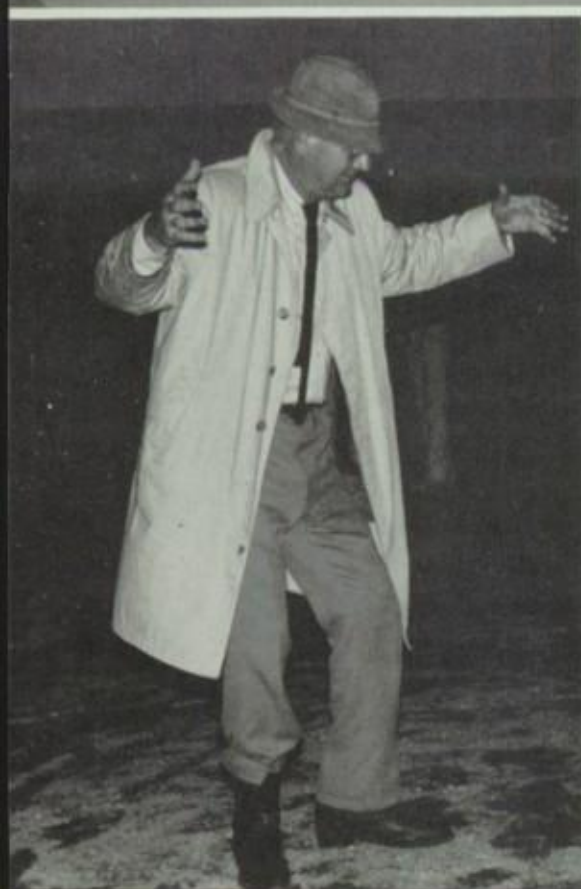

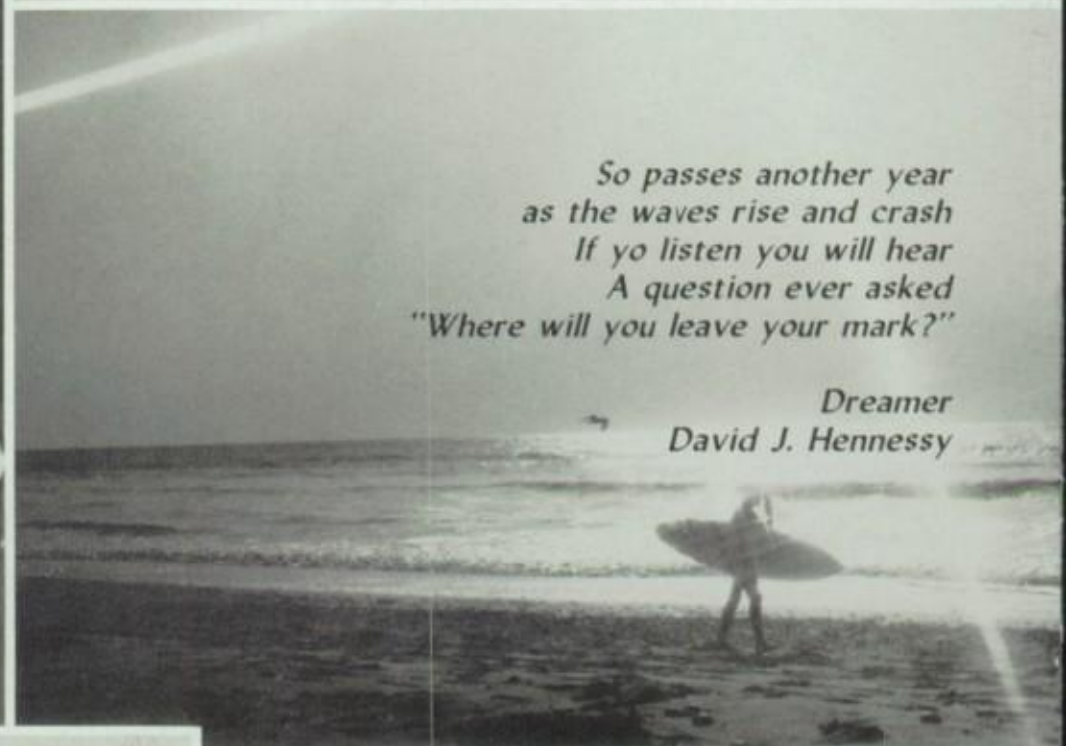

DEATH OF A LEGEND

Bear Bryant, football coach of the University of Alabama, retired after a successful career of forty-four years. He was sixty-nine and had impressive three hundred twenty-two victories. Unfortunately, he passed away in early February 1983, soon after retiring.

Steve Sax was chosen National League Rookie of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America. As second baseman for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Sax is the fourth straight Dodger to be chosen. Sax, twenty-three, batted .282 and ranked among league leaders in hits. He had forty-nine stolen bases which broke the Dodger rookie record. Others who have received rookie of the year, honors in the past have been such greats as Jackie Robinson, Pete Rose, and Fernando Valenzuela.
